About Therapeutic Improv Groups

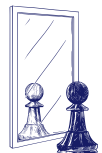

Fantasy Worlds

Create landscapes and societies limited only by your imagination. Explore new powers and identities in a shared and open space.

Authentic Communities

Engage in collaborative storytelling with others who share your concerns. Process your experiences through the lens of new people and relationships.

Integrating the Other & the Self

Gain a better understanding of who you are and who you can be by developing character and identity through story and adventure.

How to Get Started

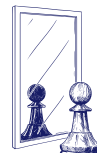

Initial Consultation with Laura

Call or email to set up a time to talk about your background and needs as they relate to the group role playing experience.

Interest Survey

Interest survey: complete a Google survey further exploring your interests and who you would like to become.

Bring your Imagination & Open Heart

Prepare to engage with others in a fantasy world that speaks to your dreams, worries, and problems.
